Chapter 527: GUN SAFETY

Sec. 527.01. Legislative findings. [Added by L.L. No. 8-2000]

The Westchester County Board of Legislators finds the following:

The presence of an unsecured, easily accessible loaded weapon in the home increases the likelihood of death or injury from accidents and impulsive acts. Guns left unattended in the home should be kept locked or stored securely to prevent access by children and others who should not have access to them. Gun owners are responsible for keeping their firearms from falling into the hands of children and other unauthorized individuals.

Sec. 527.11. Definitions. [Added by L.L. No. 8-2000]

Whenever used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) Weapon shall mean a “rifle”, “shotgun”, “firearm” or “machine gun” as those terms are defined in Section 265.00 of the Penal Law.

(b) Serious physical injury and physical injury shall be defined as provided in Section 10.00 of the Penal Law.

(c) Safety locking device shall mean a design adaptation, attached accessory or device installed, that when activated or installed prevents the discharge or firing of the weapon.

(d) Safe storage depository shall mean a safe or other secure container which, when locked, is incapable of being opened without the key, combination or other unlocking mechanism and is capable of preventing an unauthorized person from obtaining access to and possession of the weapon contained therein.

(e) Person shall include corporation, partnership, business or other entity.

(f) Operable shall mean, in relation to a weapon, that the weapon is able, when loaded with ammunition, to be fired or discharged.

Sec. 527.21. Safety locks or safe storage depositories required. [Added by L.L. No. 8-2000]

No person who owns or is custodian of a weapon shall store or otherwise leave such weapon out of his or her immediate possession or control without having first securely locked such weapon in an appropriate safe storage depository or rendered it incapable of being fired by use of a safety locking device appropriate to that weapon.

Sec. 527.31. Negligent storage of a weapon in the second degree. [Added by L.L. No. 8-2000]

A person is guilty of the negligent storage of a weapon in the second degree when he or she stores or leaves an operable weapon in any location where such weapon is accessible to another person who is not its owner or custodian.
Sec. 527.41. Negligent storage of a weapon in the first degree.
[Added by L.L. No. 8-2000]

A person is guilty of the negligent storage of a weapon in the first degree when, he or she stores or leaves an operable weapon in any location where such weapon is accessible to another person who is not its owner or custodian and such weapon is discharged causing physical injury, serious physical injury or death to any person.

Sec. 527.51. Requirements at transfer of a weapon.
[Added by L.L. No. 8-2000]

No person shall sell, deliver or transfer any weapon to another person unless the transferee is provided at the time of sale, delivery or transfer with:
(1) A safety locking device that is capable of preventing that particular weapon from firing; and
(2) A copy of the following warning in conspicuous and legible 24-point type on 8 1/2” x 11”
paper stating in bold print the following warning:
